At the serenade Wednesday night some one threw an egg and hit a fellow in the mouth. The one hit said sucking eggs was out of order when some one else furnished the eggs.

Married, Mr. Archie Gardner to Miss Mamie Cooper of Flemingsburg, on the 27th ult. at 3 p. m. Archie is one of our business men, a member of the firms of Gardner & Riggen, merchants, and Gardner & Goodwin, tobacco dealers.

The Contract Awarded.

Late yesterday afternoon M. C. Russell awarded the contract for his new building at Third and Market. Samuel B. Chunn is the lucky man.

Just as soon as a temporary structure can be put up in which the business can be carried on, and the stock of Messrs. M. C. Russell & Son can be moved into it, the work of tearing down the old building will begin.

The new structure will require about four months in building, counting from the commencement of tearing down the old, and when completed it will be one of the handsomest in the city.

Maysville is There.

Speaking of the visiting Knights Templars at Covington, The Commonwealth says one of the most distinguished visitors is the Very Eminent Sir Warren LaRue Thomas, Grand Generalissimo of the Grand Commandery of the United States, and honorary member of Maysville No. 10.

Maysville Commandery is by far the largest visiting Commandery, they having probably eighty members of the two hundred and ten in the city. They brought with them a full band, Haucke's, and through their invitation a number of the visitors will join with them in the parade.

An Elegant Affair.

The spacious residence of Robert A. Cochran, Jr., West Second street, was yesterday afternoon the scene of an elegant affair. From 3 to 6 Mrs. Cochran tendered a reception to Mrs. W. D. Cochran, being assisted by Mrs. Robert A. Cochran, Sr., Mrs. J. Foster Barbour, Mrs. William H. Cox, Miss Flora Hays and Miss Tebie Farrow.

The decorations were upon the most elaborate scale, the gaily halls and parlors and dining room presenting a veritable abode of Flora.

A harper from Cincinnati furnished delightful music and refreshments were served throughout the entire afternoon. About one hundred and fifty were present, comprising the representative of Maysville.

ABLE KENTUCKY LEGISLATORS.

They Tank Up on Lexington Booze and Wind Up in the Police Court.

THE LEDGER has already noticed the junket of the Legislature to the Lexington races at the expense of the taxpayers. What some of the members did after they got there is told in the following special of yesterday:

"There was another disgraceful affair in Lexington last night, the result of the visit of the 'Reform Legislature.' After the races a number of these gentlemen got as drunk as their pocket-books would allow. While in a state of beastly intoxication, one of the members entered the bar of the Phoenix Hotel, and started a quarrel with a brother member, which resulted in his getting his head 'beautifully punched,' to use the words of an eye-witness.

It is not clear just how the trouble originated. One account from an apparently reliable source is that the member who got the worst of it was the aggressor, and that it was started by his unwarranted abuse of a prominent member of the House. Another is that it was caused by the trouble in the House over an article in The Times. The puncher was one of those who 'riz' to a question of privilege in the House, while the punchee was a member from Louisville, who had defended his home paper.

In the Recorder's Court here to-day Mr. Ryan, Representative to the Legislature from Louisville, was fined three dollars and costs for assault and battery on Representative Donovan, of Simpson county. The two men fell out over the merits of Harvey Myers as Speaker, and had a rough-and-tumble fight in which Donovan came off second best."

A BIG SCARE ON THE "BOANANZA."

A Towboat Crashes Into the New Richmond Wharfboat, and Plays Smash.

While the Boananza was lying at the New Richmond wharfboat at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, the towboat Frisbee, with seven barges, bound for Pittsburgh, ran into the stern of the wharfboat, knocking a large hole in her and breaking all the irons on the swinging stage, dropping it into the river.

By hard work the wharfboat was kept from sinking. There was considerable excitement and a small panic among the crew and passengers of the Boananza for awhile.

Men, women and children, who were asleep, were suddenly awakened by the noise and jar and rushed from their staterooms in their night clothing.

With the awful fate of the Golden Rule fresh in their minds, the passengers were panic stricken, and rushed frantically about, trying to reach the shore, until they were assured that there was no danger. Fortunately no one was injured.

After striking the wharfboat the Frisbee ran ashore, breaking two barges. She succeeded in getting off and left for Pittsburgh. It is thought the pilot was asleep. The actual loss to the wharfboat is about $200, but the damage will be greater, as it will not be in shape for business for several days.
